Selig Brooks Named Manager of WNTC

In elections held recently, Selig Brooks was chosen station manager of campus radio station WNTC, for the coming year. June Weber of SUTCP will be assistant station manager. The new executive board was elected in March this year under the station's new policy of mid-year elections.

Brooks, a junior business administration major, served as vice-president and program director of the Malone Branch station during his freshman year. During his sophomore year he was a day manager and this year was a member of the board as director of announcers. Miss Weber is a sophomore and has been publicity director of the station since her freshman year.

New Board

The new board recently announced plans for the coming year. They include more general meetings, a more extensive publicity program, and a possible shift to new quarters. Plans are also being formulated for the broadcasting of the annual spring concert of the Crane Chorus, as well as the Tech home baseball games.

The annual banquet will be held on May 14. One of the most recent innovations at the station is the presentation of a series of hour long programs of classical and semi-classical at seven o'clock five nights a week. The series is expected to extend to the end of next year.

Others

Others elected for the coming year were Joan Kirnie, secretary; Norm Kicherer, business manager; Johanna Anguish, program director; Carl Benedict, engineering; Jerry Cohen, publicity; Wayne Hill, personnel; Charles Winters, director of announcers; Howard Doster, director of CRO's; Mary Fauler, director of record librarians; Dave Ritt, advertising; Bob Marx, sports.

WNTC is a member of the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System and operates on 640 k.c. It is owned and operated by the students of Clarkson and the State University Teachers College.
